The 2019 ELC C-Suite Academy

in collaboration with McKinsey & Company

AT A GLANCE

The ELC's Institute for Leadership Development & Research aims to strengthen the talent pipeline of Black leaders, providing top rate leadership programs that focus on individual growth at different career levels.

The ELC C-Suite Academy is a leadership development, networking, and executive coaching program for senior executives designed to strategically and tactically prepare black senior executives for their next critical step. Participants learn from successful black C-Suite executives while receiving deeper insight through individualized feedback and executive coaching.

Who Should Attend?

- High potential senior executives who are approximately 2 or 3 promotional levels below the enterprise CEO or President
- High potential senior executives who aspire to C-Suite roles reporting directly to the enterprise CEO or President
- High potential senior executives who prefer to remain at their current level but desire to increase their influence and impact within their organization

Learning Objectives

Desired outcomes for participants are built around three core themes — Self, Talent, and Relationships:

- Understand the C-Suite role and expectations, and how to get there or remain there successfully.
- Develop your C-Suite brand, and negotiate your C-Suite compensation, perks, and contract.
- Leverage the power of relationships to navigate Corporate America as a black executive, and increase the likelihood of securing corporate board positions and other key affiliations.
- Build and/or inherit your global team that will form your inner circle and maximize your success.
